We have been studying the story of Jonah. We've learned that God is with us always. God always loves us when we made good choices and bad choices. We have been working with the letter Aa this week. We practiced finding words and spaces between the words in sentences. We discussed the difference between words and letters. We are doing lots of counting to 20. We are learning the attributes of shapes; how many points and/or sides.	Calendar 9-04 Labor Day No School 9-05 Picture Day 9-21 Field Trip - Fire Department 9-27 See You At The Pole 10-04 Field Trip Fairview Fun Farm 10-13 End of 1st Quarter 10-23 Red Ribbon Week 10-26 Early Dismissal 12:00 pm 10-27 No School 11-02 Parent/Teacher Conferences No School 12-02 Kindergarten Special Music

Sight words red yellow blue orange white	We are all working together to learn to follow procedures and directions. These are huge, very new concepts for most Kindergarten age students. Another new concept is raising a hand and waiting for Mrs. Kerr to respond. We will be working on these concepts along with our academic work during the next few weeks. We will be great!
